Table to Table grilling event honors Anita Lo

DEIRDRE FLANAGAN WARD

The Estate at Florentine Gardens in River Vale was the setting, on May 30, for Table to Table's annual The Great Grill & Pig Out! – a fundraising event honoring Anita Lo and supporting the food rescue program dedicated to collecting excess prepared and perishable food from local businesses and redistributing the food to charitable groups that serve hungry individuals and struggling families in Bergen, Hudson, Essex and Passaic counties.

The social editor for (201) Magazine, Deirdre Flanagan Ward, covers charity events throughout the area.

Look for expanded coverage of social events in Bergen in the June issue of (201) Magazine and on bergen.com. Subscriptions are also available for purchase at northjerseyimages.com.
