Dear Fellow Diners,

Welcome to NYC Restaurant Week Winter 2018. While the season's bracing chill invigorates us, the welcoming warmth of the City's restaurants invites us to sit back and savor the moment.

With NYC Restaurant Week, we strive to provide a true celebration of dining that doubles as a mini-getaway for you and your family, friends or colleagues. With more than 375 restaurants across more than 40 neighborhoods representing over 30 international cuisines, NYC Restaurant Week ensures you're never far from an inspiring and diverse dining experience.

Dining is one of our city's greatest attractions and livelihoods. When you gather around the table, we want you to have a meaningful and memorable experience defined by the quality, variety and hospitality that makes New York City a dining capital of the world.

Sincerely,

Tracy Nieporent

Chairman, NYC & Company Restaurant Committee
